

HEALTH SAFETY ENVIRONMENT AND QUALITY (HSEQ) POLICY

Petrovietnam Technical Services Corporation (PTSC) is determined to become the leading full-package solution provider in the energy sector focusing on the oil and gas industry, offshore renewable energy and becoming the prestigious international brand.

▶ PTSC's PERSPECTIVE

- Health, safety, environment and quality determine sustainable development of PTSC;
- Any dissatisfaction of customers will affect the production and business activities and reputation of PTSC;
- Prevention and reduction of accidents, incidents, occupational diseases, environmental pollution, materialistic losses; assurance of the quality of services and products in all production and business activities are the responsibility of each PTSC employee.

▶ PTSC'S COMMITMENT

- Develop and improve continuously the management system to ensure the quality of services and products to be stable and highly reliable, and to satisfy the requirements of customers;
- Comply with relevant Vietnamese and international laws, conventions, regulations, standards and agreements;
- Implement a risk management system to manage potential hazards and effectively exploit opportunities to achieve PTSC's objectives;
- Provide timely and sufficient resources to serve the management of health, safety, environment and quality;
- Continuously research and develop, improve professional qualifications, modernize facilities and technology in order to continuously improve, enhance capacity to create high quality products and services for customers.

January 3rd, 2023

President and CEO of PTSC

Le Manh Cuong